Assessment Focus 1 & 2: Talking to others and with others

AF1: Talk in purposeful and imaginative ways to explore ideas and feelings, adapting and varying structure and vocabulary according to purpose, listeners, and content.

AF2: Listen and respond to others, shaping meanings through suggestions, comments and questions.

Level 6

You can take an active part in discussions, understanding others' ideas and responding sensitively. You are usually fluent in your use of Standard English. You vary your vocabulary and way of expressing yourself to engage the audience. You are confident.

Level 5

You can engage and sustain the audience's attention with what you say and how you say it. You can ask well-judged questions and take into account what others think. You are beginning to use Standard English to fit the occasion.

Level 4

You can speak clearly and fluently when explaining your ideas/opinions. You can both ask and respond to relevant questions. You can change the way you talk to fit the purpose, using some features of Standard English.
